The debut release features seven original tracks, including lead single Believe

MIRAMAR, Fla. - July 11, 2018 - PRLog -- South Florida music artist, JaShae Jones releases new alternative soul EP album, When Fear Leaves the Stage (scheduled release date, July 22, 2018). The EP will be available as a digital download on iTunes, Amazon, GooglePlay and other digital music outlets.

The talented singer is making her mark with the release of the mixture of R&B and alternative soul music. The lead single, Believe, is a track full of empowering lyrics and a strong vocal. An anthem track with an ode to letting go of fear in the face of your dreams, the single is accompanied by a "believe" video campaign -- featuring individuals sharing their personal stories of triumph. "The song Believe and the entire EP is a huge testimony about how I had to make bold decisions about my future," said Jones as she describes her inspiration. Further, Jones adds "...this music is an honest experience -- full of lyrics, life, love and lost...simply it's about leaving all fears behind."

The EP, produced by Tracksion, tells tales of overcoming the obstacles that bind us, striving and succeeding. Jones is the lead writer, pulling prose from her poetic background. Led by her religious upbringing, and inspired by musicians such as India Aire, Lauryn Hill, and John Legend. Her lyrics are uplifting, honest, and fresh. She has previously worked with artists like rapper Ciry1, international Caribbean singer, Monty G, and world-renowned gospel artist, Marvin Sapp.

The EP features seven original records:

Where Are You
If I'm Lost
